BARTON ACADEMY OPENS AUGUST 30.

Barton academy and graded schools open Monday, August 30, for the 1920-21 school year. Students planning to attend this school from outside towns and who desire places to board or work should make their plans known to Supt. C. L. Erwin or to Mr. Gilpin at the Monitor office. Likewise persons in Barton who have places for boys or girls to work or board, or who wish board teachers are requested to make such information known. Prospective students who have not received a copy of "The Orange and Black," a publication put out last spring by the school, should make application for one to either Mr. Erwin or Mr. Gilpin.

The teaching force is complete as follows: R. D. Merrill, principal; B. J. Lee, vice principal; Frances H. Storrs, 1st assistant; Kate Heath, 2nd grade; Hazel G. Leland, 5th grade; Catherine Jennings, 4th grade; Grace McDonald, 3rd grade; Jaime Chapman, 2nd grade; Clara L. Burgess, 1st grade.

FAIR SEPTEMBER 7-9.

More Than $1000 Extra Offered in Prizes and Purse.

Secretary C. E. Hamblet of the Orleans County fair announces that things are fast shaping themselves for the 1920 fair at Barton, September 7, 8 and 9. The premium lists will be in the hands of all who desire it within a few days and show new classes and premiums which add more than $1000 to offers heretofore made for premium stock and for race purses. The prospects for an unusually large amount of stock are good.

The management is not ready yet to announce special features but intimates that there will be something decidedly worth while. There will, of course, be the usual ball games, band music, stage attractions, races, etc., which in themselves are worth more than the admission price.

At O. H. Mossman's Friday, the 20th. Call and have your eyes examined.

C. F. Percival and daughters, Misses Lois and Laura, all of Springfield, Mass., are guests at Hotel Barton.

F. W. Cutting and sister, Mrs. Grace Wheeler, of Chicago, are enjoying an automobile trip of several days.

MAMMOTH CONCERT SUNDAY

Seventy-five to 100 Band Pieces Expected for Great Concert at Willoughby.

All the bands in Orleans county and other similar organizations as far north as Sherbrooke and as far south as St. Johnsbury will combine to give an open air concert Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, weather permitting, at the Foster grove, just north of Westmore village, on Willoughby lake.

It is fully expected that from 75 to 100 pieces will be present, making one of the largest aggregations of band men ever gotten together in Orleans county, to play under one leader.

The Orleans band has given several Sunday afternoon concerts at Willoughby lake this summer which have been largely attended and this attempt is an outgrowth of these concerts.

A. E. Tracy and family attended the funeral of Mr. Tracy's niece in Newport Center Sunday afternoon.

Something new. A genuine auction sale of autos. Right in the season. adv

Mrs. Harriet Fish and daughter, Janet, from Springfield, Mass., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Myers.

Forrest Hunt from Andover, Mass., made a short visit to his mother, Mrs. E. C. Hunt, at the Calkins Bros' farm the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Mowry and daughter, Dorothy, and Miss Ruth Parsons of Rhode Island are spending their annual vacation at G. C. Myers.

Mrs. Carroll Rash and little daughter, Charlotte, from Springfield, Mass., are visiting her sisters, Mrs. Charles Tatro and Mrs. Oscar Lyon.

Sherbrooke Wins.

Barton lost a hard fought game to the Canadian boys on the fair grounds Tuesday afternoon. Heath was injured in practice before the game, and a pitcher expected by Barton from Montreal did not come. In spite of these mishaps the boys worked hard and it was anybody's game all the way. The Sherbrooke team turned in two timely double plays and played a fast game generally. Butler led the bat with three hits. For Barton Bear pitched a fine game and Dubois, E. Lee and Heath made good catches in the field.
